“Changing Lives” Book of case studies

Heart rending case studies include the story of Paul whose life fell apart in his mid-40s after a series of misfortunes and relationship breakdowns forced him to live in doorways and car parks. But the local SVP Conference wouldn't allow him to let these hardships dictate the rest of his life. Instead, they helped him set up a new home for himself and scoured countless charity shops so that they could get all his basic necessities. It took some months, but eventually Paul was settled into his new home and it was a joy to see him warm and comfortable. He wrote saying: 'Thank you all so much for turning my two rooms into a cosy home.'

'I welcome the publication of these case studies, under the title Changing Lives. They will help us all to appreciate the profound needs in our society and the creative ways in which they are being met by the Society of St Vincent de Paul.'

Cardinal Vincent Nichols, SVP Patron

'Whether it is loneliness, need or homelessness, the SVP has been changing lives for 180 years! This book tells just a few of the heart-warming stories of its magnificent achievement.'

Anne Widdecombe, SVP Patron

'These testimonies call out for more compassionate support and increased action for justice in our own society and for more dedicated SVP members.'

John Battle, SVP Patron
