Let us pray

For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.

Turning Concern into Action

Do I make time in my day to acknowledge God's presence?

Do I open the door of my heart to invite God into my everyday life?

Are there areas of my life where I resist opening the door to God?

How can I make time this week to welcome God more fully into my life?

Do I open my heart to welcome others, especially those in need?

How could I use my time better to serve others with kindness and patience?

Are there people I keep “out” by making judgments or because of my pride?

How can I create more time to help someone in need this week?

Do I use my time to speak out for justice and mercy in the lives of others?

Are there people I need to forgive to unlock the door to healing?

Do I resist forgiving because I don't want to appear weak or I worry it will be too hard?

Is there a friendship I need to invest time in beginning to repair?

In my relationships with others do I respect and care for myself?

During the sacrament of reconciliation, this is what will happen.

Sign of the Cross

After making the sign of the cross, the Priest will invite you to share your sins.

Advice and Penance

This is where the Priest will give you some advice and an action about what you could do to show you are sorry.

Contrition

This is the prayer you will say to say you are sorry.

Father, I' m sorry for the things I' ve done wrong. Please help me to do better and be the person You want me to be. Amen.

Absolution

The Priest will then give you absolution- which is where God forgives your sins..
