

News Article: The Miraculous Medal: A Gift from Heaven

You've learned about St Catherine Labouré and the Miraculous Medal. Now it's your turn to share the good news! Use the ideas below to help you plan your newspaper article. Write your plan here, then neatly write your finished article on your newspaper template.

St Catherine Labouré & the Miraculous Medal

Opening Paragraph – Summarise the story you heard/read. Use the questions to help you write your paragraph.

- Who was St Catherine Labouré?
- When did this take place?
- Where was she when this happened?
- What happened when she saw Mary?
- What did Mary ask her to do?

Main Story – The Miraculous Medal

- What is the medal and why is it special?
- What does the medal show?
- What words are on it?
- Why do people wear it today?

Picture Box:

- Draw St Catherine seeing Our Lady.

Reflection Section – What I Learned

- What can we learn from St Catherine? How can we live like her?
- What does her story teach us about faith or listening to God?
- How can I share God's love like she did?

Fun Fact:

Example: Did you know... the Miraculous Medal has been worn by millions of people all over the world?

- Can you find out your own fun fact about the medal?

Quote:

Share the quote that's on the Miraculous Medal.

St Vincent
de Paul Society

England and Wales

Turning Concern into Action

✉ youngvincentians@svp.org.uk

☎ 020 7703 3030

Registered charity number 1053992

A company limited by guarantee: 3174679

